Sandy A. Williams, District Attorney in and for Ozaukee County, Wisconsin, upon information and belief, being first duly sworn on oath states:

COUNT ONE: BATTERY

That on or about November 21, 1995 in the City of Cedarburg, County of Ozaukee, State of Wisconsin, Randall C. Cook, did unlawfully cause bodily harm to a person, to-wit: Theresa Loper, by an act done with intent to cause bodily harm, without the consent of that person so harmed, contrary to Section 940.19(1) and against the peace and dignity of the State of Wisconsin, which carries possible penalties of a fine not to exceed $10,000.00, imprisonment of nine months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

COUNT TWO: FALSE IMPRISONMENT

That on or about November 21, 1995 in the City of Cedarburg, County of Ozaukee, State of Wisconsin, Randall C. Cook did intentionally, unlawfully and feloniously restrained another without the person's consent and with the knowledge that he has no lawful authority to do so, ~~which is a Class E Felony~~, contrary to Section 940.30 of the Wisconsin Statutes and against the peace and dignity of the State of Wisconsin, a Class E Felony, which carries a possible penalty of a fine not to exceed $10,000.00 and imprisonment not to exceed two years.

The basis for complainant's charge of such offense is upon information and belief, and upon a reading of the written police reports of Officer Buege of the Cedarburg Police Department, who complainant believes to be reliable as his reports have proved to be reliable in the past.

I certify that this is a true and correct copy of a document on file and of record in my office and has been compared by me
Sandra J. Dwyer 7/22/96
Clerk of Courts (Deputy) Date

Complainant alleges that Officer Buege on November 21, 1995, spoke with Theresa Loper, an adult private citizen and a victim of a crime, who stated that she and her friend, Randall Cook, had gotten into a verbal argument as they were travelling to the Kohl's Food store in Grafton. The argument continued as they entered the City of Cedarburg, at which time Mr. Cook was driving the vehicle and Ms. Loper was a passenger. Ms. Loper when the truck came to a stop, got out of the truck and began walking away, however, Mr. Cook went after her and got her down to the ground. However, she was able to escape from his grasp at which time he forced her into his vehicle against her will. Ms. Loper stated that she got out of the truck again but he, for a second time, forced her back into the truck without her will and had no authority to keep her in his truck. Mr. Cook then drove back to the apartment where an altercation continued. Mr. Cook during the time of the altercation did strike Ms. Loper and pulled her hair, both done without her consent and with those actions causing her pain.

Complainant further alleges that all of the above stated events occurred in the County of Ozaukee, State of Wisconsin.

Complainant alleges that on January 22, 1996 at approximately 10:22 a.m., Officer Van Dinter was dispatched to the area of W61 N672 Mequon Avenue in the City of Cedarburg, Ozaukee County, State of Wisconsin. Officer Van Dinter was informed that an individual was violating a restraining order at that residence. The individual was identified as the defendant Randall Cook. While on his way to that residence, Officer Van Dinter was informed that the defendant had left the area in his vehicle. Officer Van Dinter subsequently saw the defendant in a parking lot at another location and the defendant then approached Officer Van Dinter and spoke with him. The defendant told Officer Van Dinter that he did not want to get in trouble and began to explain to Officer Van Dinter that Theresa Loper had been constantly calling him on the telephone. He stated that he had gone over to her residence on Mequon Avenue to deliver a note which he had placed in the mailbox. He also stated that he became aware that the neighbors had seen him and had contacted the police department. The neighbor, Elke Hoffmann subsequently gave a written statement to the Cedarburg Police Department stating that Randy Cook was seen on that date leaving Theresa Loper's back door.

Complainant further alleges that the defendant is currently charged with the misdemeanor charge of battery and felony charge of false imprisonment in case number 95-CF-164 in the Ozaukee County Circuit Court. As conditions of his bail in that case, the defendant was ordered to not have any contact with Theresa Loper or her residence which is the residence located at W61 N674 Mequon Avenue in the City of Cedarburg.

Complainant further alleges that on December 5, 1995, an injunction was issued by the Honorable Tom R. Wolfgram in case number 95-CV-424 in the Ozaukee County Circuit Court. That injunction ordered that the defendant avoid Theresa Loper's residence and/or any premises temporarily occupied by her at that time or in the future. That injunction is in effect until December 4, 1997.

Complainant further alleges that all of the above stated events occurred in the County of Ozaukee, State of Wisconsin.

A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Final Decision and Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Final Decision and Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
